Meet Jacki Davidoff, Chief Potential Officer & Executive Leadership Coach

JACKI DAVIDOFF

Chief Potential Officer & Executive Leadership Coach

Jacki Davidoff is a sought-after executive leadership coach and facilitator, supporting individuals and teams to develop their leadership capacities and create high-functioning, drama-free cultures in their organizations.

Additionally, Jacki is founder and convener of the Leadership Forum, a monthly convening for diverse nonprofit CEO’s and Executive Directors; and the Leadership Intensive, supporting women at all levels of leadership. She is also co-founder and facilitator - with Jessyca Dudley of Chicago African Americans in Philanthropy - of “The Self Aware Leader, Understanding How Race Affects Our Leadership” which launched in April 2022.

Jacki bridges both nonprofit and corporate sectors. Her background includes 30 years in leading national advertising agencies and senior executive positions in nonprofits.

Jacki has been actively involved in racial justice training nationally and locally. She is immediate past Board Co-Chair of Chicago Women in Philanthropy and former Co-Chair of the Racial Equity & Social Justice committee. Jacki recently completed the inaugural cohort of Dismantling White Supremacy, led by Chicago African Americans in Philanthropy and The Institute for Research on Race & Public Policy at the University of Illinois at Chicago.

Jacki has a BS in Advertising with highest honors from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. She completed her Masters in Transformational Leadership and Coaching at Wright Graduate University for the Realization of Human Potential.
