

THINGS TO DO IN BOSTON

Make the most of your trip to the northeast by checking out all the sights Boston has to offer!

Catch a Red Sox game at Fenway Park

Apart from the games, you can join a year-round guided tour of the stadium to learn about the history of the sport and the team, as well as get a behind-the-scenes peek into the locker room.

Walk through the American Revolution on the Freedom Trail

Learn about early Boston and U.S. history on this 2.5-mile-long trail that passes through 16 historic locations. Look out for the brick markers – starting in downtown Boston, crossing through the North End, and finishing at the famous Bunker Hill Monument in neighbouring Charlestown. You'll pass by notable stops like Faneuil Hall, the Paul Revere House, and the USS Constitution frigate.

Check out an exhibit at the Museum of Fine Arts

Boston's oldest, largest, and best-known art institution, the MFA houses one of the world's most comprehensive art collections and is renowned for its Impressionist paintings, Asian and Egyptian collections, and early American art.

Stop and smell the roses at Boston Public Garden

This Frederick Law Olmsted-designed Park, famous for its Swan Boats, has over 600 varieties of trees and an ever-changing array of flowers. It is America's first public garden.

Eat your way through the historic North End

Boston's Little Italy is the city's oldest neighbourhood, famous for its Italian restaurants and pastry shops, and centuries-old architecture. Stroll around this Italian American enclave to discover its narrow, cobbled alleys and iconic streets like Hanover Street.

Step back in time at the Boston Tea Party Ships & Museum

The Boston Tea Party Ships and Museum is a history lesson you won't forget. Relive the event that started the American Revolution with historical interpreters, interactive exhibits, and full-scale replicas of the 18th-century sailing vessels. Join a town meeting, hang out with talking portraits, and take part in the tradition of tossing tea into the harbour.

Contact JMT Consulting